

I love satellite radio. It is so much better than conventional radio. Check it out for yourself. I will be disappointed and disgusted if this agency caves in to the big networks instead of doing what is right--doing what is best for consumers.